WEEKLY ACTIVITIES AND STATUS REPORT FOR DD/ICS--14 March 1984

CIPC Organizational Activities

- The CIPC Meeting scheduled for 19 March has been canceled.
 - The next Committee Meeting is tentatively scheduled for 1030 hours, 23 April.
 - Attached is the CIPC Meeting schedule for the remainder of 1984. (NOTE FOR [] Please make note of these dates on Eloise's calendar.)
- The 23 April meeting agenda will include the Critical Intelligence Needs Package and possibly an overview briefing on the Performance and Evaluation Concept.
- The Monthly CIPC Status Report for the CIPC Members was forwarded on 13 March 1984.
- The Monthly Committee Report for the DDCI was forwarded to the NFIB Secretariat on 13 March 1984.
- On 9 March, [] met with [] and were given a preview of an NSA briefing for ADM Murphy on NSA's support to the Narcotics interdiction effort; very impressive when reviewed in a comprehensive manner.
- Also on 9 March we met with [] Assistant NIO for Counterterrorism.
- Vacancy notice for Secretary position was forwarded to E Career Service on 8 March; cutoff date for applicants is 16 March 1984.
- []
- The Terrorism Working Group is scheduled to meet on 15 March to finalize a coordinated draft study.

As previously reported to you, we have established an automated process for maintaining an audit trail on the growing number of projects and activities assigned to the CIPC.

WORKING PAPER

25X1

~~TOP SECRET~~

- The system we have developed consists of the following categories:
 1. Major Projects and Activities,
 2. On-Going Projects and Activities, and
 3. Administrative Actions.
- Information relative to the first two categories has been input into the system, however, they still need some refinement, particularly category 2. Attached for your information and use is the Major Projects and Activities Report. (NOTE: We will start incorporating these reports into the Weekly as they become operational.)

DABMs Working Group:

25X1

- Work continues on finalizing the final DABMs report. The "Front End" Section--Preface, Executive Summary, Key Judgments, and Recommendations should be completed by COB 14 March 84. Subsequently, the body of the draft report will be updated to reflect the comments and recommendations of the Working Group review.

Arms Control:

25X1

- A small Community Working Group is being formed under the auspices of D/PBS to examine potential new collection initiatives which could enhance our ability to monitor and verify Arms Control accords. This Working Group (at the behest of DDCI) will respond to three separate issues:

CBW Working Group: [redacted]

- On 12 March, [redacted] visited Dr. Ted Gold, Deputy Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Chemical Matters. They were accompanied by [redacted] Executive Secretary of STAP, who arranged the meeting. Highlights of the meeting were:

25X1

- The purpose and objectives of the STAP and CIPC CBW projects were explained.

25X1

- The Defense Science Board is about to initiate a major CBW study (to review progress since the 1980 DSB study). They will postpone starting their review until after the CIPC study is completed.

25X1

- There was a useful discussion of the most pressing information needs from the OSD/DOD perspective.

25X1

- They obtained a copy of a recent (7 Feb 84) study by the Institute of Defense Analyses on Chemical Warfare Operations for review and information.

- On 13 March, [redacted] met with Sven Kramer of the NSC Staff.

China Working Group: [redacted]

- [redacted] are nearing completion of a consolidated draft. The draft will be finished on Wednesday or Thursday and will be distributed to the Working Group members for their comments.

25X1

- The draft has gone through several rewrites and some remaining weaknesses were addressed on Monday by [redacted]

[redacted] It is vastly improved over the contributions that were originally received from the Sub-group Chairman.

Narcotics Security Panel Report: [redacted]

- A totally revised report was sent to the Panel members for review on 12 March; comments are requested by 16 March 1984.
